

Quand c'est pareil, ce n'est pas identique. Quelques réflexions sur l'expression de l'identité/ressemblance avec des adjectifs

When it's the same, it's not identical. Reflections on adjectival expression of identity/resemblance

Abstract: In this article, we analyse a small family of adjectives which express identity and resemblance. We aim to prove that, in general, they do not differ from other standard adjectives, but they have, by way of their semantic content, a possibility of anaphoric sense and play a role in discourse organization.

Key words: adjectives, identity, resemblance, anaphora, discourse.
